Algoma
 That real.

That remote.

An aerial photograph of a remote lodge complex situated on a peninsula or shoreline. The lodge consists of several small, rustic buildings with green roofs, some with porches, and a larger white tent-like structure. A wooden dock extends into a dark lake, with several small boats moored nearby. The surrounding area is densely forested with tall evergreen trees. In the background, more lakes and forested hills are visible under a cloudy sky.

Real Fishing & Hunting. Welcome to unspoiled wilderness with thousands of lakes, rivers and streams in a natural forest habitat that makes up much of the 28,000 square miles of Algoma. We are known as a mecca for some of the best gear fishing, fly fishing and hunting opportunities in the province of Ontario. Whether you fly-in, train-in, or drive to one of the many lodges or resorts, your trip to Algoma Country will be unforgettable.

Fishing

Landing a Catch That Big

How do you make the all-important decision on where to fish? It truly is all about location. With 28,000 square miles bordering on two Great Lakes, plus countless waterways, you'll never have to fish the same spot twice.

Not only can you take your pick of sport fish species, you can pick your mode of travel to our fishing lodges, resorts, outposts and cottage rentals. Fly-in, train-in, or drive-in; just like in the movie Planes, Trains and Automobiles, literally. Our hundreds of lodges, resorts and outposts offer a huge variety of services, so you can customize your vacation. Whether it's a rustic retreat or a luxury lodge with delicious cuisine and upscale cottages, pick your experience and book it—it's that simple. Many lodges and resorts offer boat rentals, fishing supplies, and guide services.

For details including seasons, licences and creel limits, consult the district offices of the Ministry of Natural Resources in Blind River, Chapleau, Sault Ste. Marie, Wawa or White River. Remember, you need an Outdoors Card and a Fishing Licence to fish in Ontario. For more info visit www.ontario.ca/fishing.

A True Pike & Walleye Oasis

— BY THE FISH'N CANADA SHOW —

It wasn't long ago that we here at The Fish'n Canada Show thought the north-west portion was the only area of Ontario that held astonishing numbers, as well as trophy sizes of Walleye and Pike. Let's face it: Bodies of water like Lake of the Woods and Lac Seul are second to none in fish production. The problem we had (and still have) for our production is the extremely long drive. It's pretty much a once-a-year destination. We needed something closer to Southern Ontario—somewhere we could drive to and be on the water in a day, and return two or three times a year.

We kept hearing about Algoma for not only Pike and Walleye, but for Bass, Trout and Salmon. This, we had to check out.

To think, we had been driving directly past some of the best fishing in the province. Shame on us! Since this major destination discovery, we have made countless trips – using all forms of transportation – to fish the Algoma region at least three times per shooting season.

For our Walleye and Pike trips, we have three ways of arriving at our final fishing destinations: driving our vehicle (drive to), driving our vehicle to a railway station (train-in), or driving our vehicle to an air base (fly-in).

DRIVE TO FISHING

By far the most convenient way of getting to an Algoma Pike and Walleye destination is driving. Simply pack the car or truck, hook up the boat (this is an option; if you don't have a boat, almost every lodge will supply you with one), make a coffee stop or two, and finally arrive at the camp office where you check in. If you time it right, you'll be fishing that evening and maybe even have a few Walleye for a late snack.

"We have driven to quite a few Algoma Pike and Walleye lodges," says Angelo Viola, "and we've never been disappointed. Yes, it can take a little extra work to find bigger fish—drive-to's are the easiest to get to, hence more people fishing—but that's what we as anglers do... look for the big ones!"

For families or a group of anglers simply looking for a nice, economical outdoor get-together/fishing trip – with the bonus of eating delicious Walleye or Pike (yes, Pike are fantastic table fare) – an Algoma drive-to is an obvious choice.

TRAIN-IN FISHING

One of the more unique modes of transportation into an Algoma fishing destination is by train.

"The first time we took a train into an Algoma lodge, we had an absolute blast!" says Pete Bowman. "We unpacked our gear from the truck, loaded it into a box car, and then played poker for the remainder of the trip. No choosing routes, no driving, no worries. It doesn't get much better than that."

The amazing part of an Algoma train-to lodge trip is the number of anglers you see boarding the train along the line. "You see people loading the box cars with not only suitcases and fishing gear, but boats!" says Ang. "Yup, that's right. From canoes and kayaks to even small aluminums. That's how you know you're on route to good fishing!" The strangest part of a train-in is the drop off point. The train stops in the middle of nowhere, you unload your gear at the side of the tracks, your lodge guides pop up out of the bush to greet you, and finally the train fades away into the sunset.

FLY-IN FISHING

Lastly, let's look at the ultimate in an Algoma Walleye and Pike fishing trip: the fly-in. This truly is the top of the food chain for fishing trips. It's exciting, exotic and you know there's a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

"We are blessed," says Pete, "to have experienced so many Algoma Walleye and Pike fly-in trips. And trust me, there are many more to come."

The beauty of the fly-in is knowing that only a few other anglers have pressured the waters you're about to take on. With miles upon miles of secluded lakes and/or river systems, there will always be trophy fish available for the catching.

"Flying into a lodge never gets old," says Ang. "The anticipation of Walleye after Walleye, or a giant Northern smashing a topwater, it's like being a kid on Christmas Eve. I don't care how old you are, or how many fishing trips you've been on, this kind of excitement is the crème de la crème of fishing."

CONCLUSION

Whether you train, drive or fly to an Algoma fishing destination, it's our opinion that you won't be disappointed in the overall experience (remember, it's not just about the fishing). Thankfully, we at Fish'n Canada made our "Algoma Region" discovery, and have added it to our favourite Ontario fishing destinations. It's a discovery that we'll never regret and always take advantage of.

There's no time like the present to make Algoma your next big fishing discovery! For more info visit www.algomacountry.com

Drive-in Fishing

A Fishing Vacation That Easy

This isn't what it sounds like. There is no bad popcorn, or crackling sound while you stare at a screen through your windshield. This is about parking your car at a lodge, being catered to, and casting for pure Algoma fishing gold. These lodges are perfect for families, weekends with the guys, the girls, or your significant other. Many of our drive-in lodges and resorts offer outdoor activities such as ice fishing, canoeing, kayaking and wildlife photo opportunities, so once you catch your limit, there is still plenty to do. Algoma Country is home to some of the best drive-in fishing in Canada.

Wait it gets better. A few of our traditional drive-in lodges offer exclusive lakes that you can access only by ATV and guide services. That's right: a remote fishing lake at a drive-in lodge.

The Bass & Trout of Algoma

— BY MARK MELNYK | THE NEW FLY FISHER SHOW —

The word “world class” gets thrown about a LOT and has almost become a cliché in the angling world, however, if you are truly vested, take your time and do your research, you will find World Class angling opportunities right here. Opportunities for trophy fish in Ontario’s Algoma County are basically endless no matter the species of fish that call Algoma’s waters home – but you have to do your homework.

The Algoma region encompasses a large area in Ontario and is internationally known for outdoor recreation including fly fishing! Anglers in search of some of the fiercer fighters our waters hold, will, and do travel great distances. All to target species which provide tremendous opportunities for great numbers of quality fish. Two of these more-sought-after species are Smallmouth Bass and our Eastern Brook Trout. What’s wonderful about both of these adversaries is they are readily caught & released on fly!

Angling seasons for Smallmouth Bass in much of Algoma are literally open all year long.

With a hitch...

North of Highway 17 throughout the region is open for catch and release fishing for Bass 24/7, 365. This offers all anglers the opportunity to catch Smallmouth Bass all year long, where many other regions are closed. For fly anglers, the fun starts as soon as the ice melts and continues right through until freeze up in the fall. When the ice is off the lakes and rivers, the feeding frenzy begins and can last all season long!

Brook Trout seasons are a little different. Fly anglers can generally target Brook Trout as soon as the ice is off the rivers and lakes, however the angling season for our "Jewels of the North" run from January 1st until Canadian Labour Day or the end of September for some Algoma Fishing regions. Regardless of the species you target, giants do abound!

THAT BIG

Smallmouth Bass and Brook Trout are revered for their pound-for-pound size and power. Aggression is guaranteed when both fish eat, and they have the ability to grow to enormous sizes. Big fish do equal a big fight on a fly. It's not uncommon to release Bass in the 4-7 lb range in Algoma as well as Brook Trout in the same size category. Both fish inhabit lakes and rivers and are cold, clear, clean-water species. Substantive surface flies such as poppers and mice as well as subsurface flies such as streamers and nymphs will readily fool these angry predators. Come well prepared with a variety of flies to cover the entire water column for best results.

THAT BEAUTIFUL

There is nothing quite like the moment you lay eyes on a big "lit up" Smallmouth Bass either in your net or more often than not, in the air. The fish's iridescently green football shaped body, mottled with vibrant brown or black vertical bars remind many of the Aurora as they appear, fade and reappear again before release. Their eyes are unmistakably red with meanders of orange and rust speckled throughout. A Bass's wrist, (or short section before its tail) is often its most impressive trait with a thickness indicative of pure power and solid strength. The wrist is the engine which drives a Smallmouth Bass's powerful propeller.

Brook Trout are arguably the most beautiful freshwater fish to swim in Algoma Country. Spanning from bright silver to a darkly mazed black, then fading to a bright orange belly, speckled with pink to red dots is truly something to behold. Then, when you notice the unique blue halo surrounding each and every spot, it's hard to believe that mother nature herself didn't hand paint each Brook Trout individually. The only flaw in the Brook Trout's design is the white leading edge of each of its fins which will ever-so-often highlight a bird of prey to its location in the water. To catch and release an Algoma Brook Trout back into the river is an experience every fly angler should experience at least once in their lives.

Fly anglers the world over are in constant search for new adventures. Adventures which take them to incredible places, to chase even more incredible fish species. Whether you search them out as you "do it yourself" or you access one of Algoma's remote fishing lodges, the Smallmouth Bass and Brook Trout of Ontario's Algoma Country are unmistakably World Class.

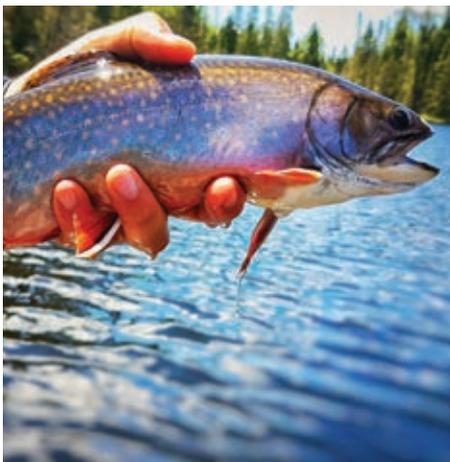

Train-in Fishing

A Vacation That Unique

Want a remote experience without having to fly? There are multiple lodges to choose from along the VIA rail line in Algoma, each providing an experience as unique as its location. Departure on the rail line can be from multiple locations, so this experience is closer than you may think. You can prepare your own meals in a housekeeping cabin, or enjoy the pampering of a full American Plan that includes meals prepared in the main lodge, and daily housekeeping service. Our fishing lodges are owned by experienced anglers that truly know the sport of fishing. To start planning your train-in wilderness adventure along the rail line and for more information visit www.algomacountry.com/train-in-fishing

Hunting

The Hunt for That Trophy

Many of our Algoma resorts, lodges, and fly-in wilderness camps transform themselves into seasonal hunt camps with experienced guides. These hunting lodges play an important role, because all non-resident moose hunters must be a registered guest with a tourist outfitter to be eligible for a licence. Algoma offers three types of hunting adventures: small game, wild fowl and big game. The spring black bear hunt in Ontario runs from May 1st to June 15th. The fall bear hunt season begins in mid-August while small game, wild fowl and big game, including moose and deer, begin mid-September through mid-December. For those of you looking for a weekend motorcycle ride, it's likely time to ride Highway 129. Nicknamed "Ontario's Tail of the Dragon", this ribbon of road has spectacular scenery and is renowned for curves as it hugs the banks of the Mississagi River. Part of the Grand Algoma Tour, Highway 129 links up to Highway 101 at Chapleau which takes you to Highway 17 at Wawa. This trip is ideal for any mode of travel. Be sure to take a selfie with the famous Wawa Goose then experience one of the Top Ten Drives in Canada: Wawa to Sault Ste. Marie.

The ride between Wawa and the Soo takes about 3 hours but we recommend you take a full day. There are so many opportunities to stop and photograph the scenery along Lake Superior.

Lake Superior Circle Tour: Are you ready for it? Three states, one province and this immense lake make for a wicked road trip. Its humbling scenery, tasty places to eat, and bike-friendly, RV-friendly and family-friendly places to stay make the Lake Superior Circle Tour a must do vacation. You'll experience different cultures, local traditions and meet unforgettable people all around the lake. Motorcycle riders can learn more at www.ridelakesuperior.com. Not a rider? Two Wheeling The Grand Algoma

— BY MARTIN LORTZ | OUTER IMAGES —

With twenty eight thousand square miles of Northern Ontario real-estate within its boundaries, Algoma is no stranger to the rumble of an engine, snowmobiles in the winter, ATV's, and motor boats. All of which are fine tools to explore the region's vastness. Come summer time the best view comes from behind the bars and on the seat of your motorcycle. With so many amazing roads at your disposal Algoma's moto touring potential might be Ontario's "not so secret", secret.

With five pre-planned routes to choose from, three of which can be done comfortably in one day, and the epic Ride Lake Superior loop, there is a ride that will fit into any schedule. That said, if you happen to have a couple days at your disposal, the 682 km Grand Algoma Tour is just the ticket. Rideable in either direction, my personal choice is to do it counter clockwise with day one including my favourite road and day two my favourite landscape.

We roll east from Sault Ste. Marie along Highway 17, city sights and traffic lights soon are behind us, replaced by farm fields and glimpses of the sparkling waters of the North Channel in the distance to the south. Breakfast at Bobbers Restaurant in Bruce Mines is a tradition whenever in the area.

We top up the gas tanks in Thessalon and turn north onto the road which is the reason we are here, Hwy 129. Grins fill our helmets at the expectations of what's to come, the next 225 kilometres will serve up an abundance of curves and northern solitude.

It starts with big sweepers through farmers' fields then the road rapidly descends into a river valley where the curves tighten up and increase in frequency. We settle in to a rhythm of lean, turn repeat as the road threads a needle between a rock and a hard place, in this case, it's towering cliffs on one side and rushing river on the other. Chapleau offers us a chance to refuel for both bike and bodies before we point the bikes west along Highway 101 bound for Wawa for the night.

In Wawa we do what tourists do, selfies with the Wawa Goose, meet the Moose and cool off with some ice cream at Young's General Store, then poke around some gravel sideroads in search of the famous Lake Superior sunset. With the tourist cravings satisfied we settle into our comfy rooms, enjoy a dinner out, then hang out in the parking lot of our hotel, exchanging stories from the road with fellow moto travellers.

At only 230 kilometres, day two won't leave much of a mark on your odometer but with stunning scenery and many points of interest along the way it might just take a full day to complete. Following the north shore of Lake Superior, this stretch of Highway 17 is unarguably the most spectacular road in Ontario.

We begin our day sheltered by road side walls of stone and trees, bathed in morning sun, as the perfectly paved ribbon of tarmac swoops up, down and around the landscape of Lake Superior Provincial Park. You notice the 200 metre cliffs first, towering above, then as the road dips, the blue sparkle of Lake Superior comes into view and finally as you round the bend, the beach and the full grandeur of Old Woman Bay comes into view. It is this moment of "wow", an experience that only last a handful of seconds as we roll by, but that view, that "wow" is the reason why I ride the Grand Algoma counterclockwise.

A stop at the Old Woman Bay rest area is a must as is Katherine Cove, a Group of Seven Interpretive panel site. The tree tunnel continues for the next 35 km then it's lakeside all the way to Sault Ste. Marie. Trading posts and picnic spots dot the route. Partake in some locally smoked fish or a scoop of ice-cream; shop for art works by local artists or that special souvenir. Photo opportunities abound, as too, are options to do absolutely nothing; pick a beach, enjoy the moment, take a nap, there is no rush.

Back in Sault Ste. Marie we are in no hurry to move on. Accommodations are varied and plentiful as are things to do. We keep the engine theme going at the Canadian Bushplane Heritage Centre. Take in a local craft brew right from the source and enjoy a delicious dinner out.

The Grand Algoma Tour, epic roads and epic views, counterclockwise or otherwise, you won't be disappointed.

Fabulous Sledding in Ontario's Algoma Country

— STORY & PHOTOS BY CRAIG NICHOLSON | THE INTREPID SNOWMOBILER —

Ontario's Algoma Country is one of my favourite snowmobiling destinations in the province. That's because it occupies a huge swath (52,000 square kilometres / 28,000 square miles) of Northern Ontario ideally positioned for the ultimate self-guided trail riding adventures. Algoma Country's long-lasting, reliable snow comes early and stays late, enabling over 2,500 kilometres (1,500 miles) of groomed trails for a long season that delivers a variety of exhilarating ride experiences. So snowmobilers have many great riding choices...

You can discover the snowmobile-friendly communities along Lake Huron's North Shore at your own pace by following Trans Ontario Provincial (TOP) Trail D, starting at either Sault Ste. Marie in the west and / or from Spanish or Elliot Lake in the east. This primarily linear route, which basically parallels Highway 17, offers loop options that include the Island Gateway Loop to St. Joseph Island, and taking TOP Trail D134 and Local Trail 3 instead of TOP Trail D on your return ride. There are also many local offshoot trails into towns and services.

Another multi-day excursion is the "North Shore Loop". This 446-kilometre (277-mile) tour not only takes in much of the North Shore, but also includes some excellent wilderness riding as trails TOP Trail D106 and TOP Trail F circle north through Algoma Country hinterlands. This territory includes rugged Canadian Shield, old growth forests and even some very scenic hill country between Black Creek and Elliot Lake. You can also extend the turnkey North Shore Loop by adding in the Island Gateway Loop or a side trip into Sault Ste. Marie. All in all, the North Shore Loop boasts more than enough variety of trails, terrain and towns to more than satisfy any group of snowmobilers.

But if you are an experienced rider who really wants to go some serious distance, try riding "All The Way There" on what many consider to be Ontario's premier linear tour. An almost 1,000-kilometre (621-mile) ride from Sault Ste. Marie to Hearst and back, the All The Way There Tour boasts Quebec-style trails through Algoma Highlands that will keep been-there-done-that adventure seekers grinning from ear to ear.

It simply doesn't get any better than this – oodles of snow, super wide groomed trails, low traffic, great scenery and sufficient fuel, food and lodging services on route. And if you want to rack up some extra mileage along the way, try exploring the Bob Cat Loop (90 km/56 mi) at Hornepayne or the Missinaibi Expedition Loop (165 km/102 mi) out of Hearst.

There are even great backcountry riding opportunities near Wawa, popularly known as the Top Secret Boondocking Location.

Ontario's Algoma Country is also a popular staging choice for snowmobilers embarking on an exploration of Northeastern Ontario's many trails. Trail connections like TOP Trail A from Hearst or TOP Trail C101D out of Chapleau make Algoma a great gateway staging destination for this neighbouring region.

HOW TO GET HERE

Yes, there's a pile of primo riding to be found in Ontario's Algoma Country and getting to it is easy. From the U.S.A., triling snowmobilers can access these unbeatable trails out of Sault Ste. Marie, Canada. Alternatively, you can cross the border by snowmobile from Drummond Island, Michigan and enter Canada via St Joseph Island. From Southern Ontario, riders can trailer north and make a hard left on to Highway 17 at Sudbury to stage your Algoma Country tour out of Elliot Lake or Spanish. Trail connections from the Sudbury area are also available for those who choose to reach Ontario's Algoma Country by snowmobiles.

So if you're looking for something new, exciting and memorable, why not earn the bragging rights for snowmobiling in Ontario's Algoma Country? Like me, there's no doubt you'll want to go back again and again!

Six Reasons to Paddle Algoma

— BY JAMES SMEDLEY | JAMES SMEDLEY OUTDOORS —

Those of us who regularly dip a paddle in the lakes and rivers of Algoma Country, have many reasons for doing so. With every stroke bringing us deeper into the wilderness, our reasons for being here swirl around us like falling leaves from a maple. Long ago we stopped keeping track of what draws us to the woods and waters, but simply accept that it is a requirement – like taking water when we're thirsty.

There are many good reasons for portaging and paddling the interconnected waterways of Algoma. Whether profound and personal, or fleeting and frivolous, those who paddle here have all the motivation they need. But for those who haven't, here's a handful of reasons why launching a canoe into the fabled waters of Algoma Country should become a priority.

1. MOVING TO A DIFFERENT RHYTHM

In an online world, dominated by cell phone and computer screens, paddling away from it all is like a breath of fresh air. Instead of watching for social media posts we see sunsets and stars – and keep our eyes peeled for storm clouds and waterfalls.

On overnight adventures to the wilderness, wristwatches hold less sway and we move with the rhythm of nature. We might sleep in if a morning rain is pattering on the roof of the tent, or we may stay up a little past dark to hang out by the firelight, but overall our off-line paddling and camping schedule is orchestrated by the rising and setting of the sun.

2. EMBRACING THE SEASONS

Many will be excused for not aspiring to be winter paddlers but canoe tripping spring to fall is fair game. Spring welcomes us with high water, ushering us down tributaries that are impassable in any other season. The spring freshet is also accompanied by a vibrant green forest of newly budded leaves, and the experience of setting up camp on the first expanses of sun-warmed earth after a long cold winter. Cool weather accompanies autumn, when green coniferous are contrasted by the vibrant reds, oranges and yellows of hardwoods. And of course hot August days spent navigating the beaches and rocky headlands along coast of Lake Superior leave paddlers no choice but to embrace the warmth of summer.

3. PADDLE INTO A GROUP OF SEVEN PAINTING

It is rare indeed that landscapes painted 100 years ago appear as they did when first depicted by the artist. In Algoma that is the case: along the coast of Lake Superior and on inland wilderness trout waters along the Algoma Central Railway. Canada's most famous group of artists were first drawn to Algoma after World War One. The Group of Seven were not disappointed. They would return again and again to capture a wilderness splendour that still exists today. Paddlers in Algoma enjoy the rare opportunity of paddling through undisturbed areas where iconic works of art were created; where the silent movement of a canoe is a fitting addition to the scene.

4. REAL WORLD EXERCISE

Moving through the woods by path and paddle is a great way to engage our muscles in a meaningful way. Algoma is rugged country. Although there are plenty of interconnected waterways there's often a portage in between. Sometimes it's short and flat, other times it's long, rugged and steep. Carrying our canoe and packs can vary from an easy stroll, to an arduous undertaking. Similarly, an easy paddle, propelled by the current of a river, is in stark contrast to a nose-to-the-grindstone paddle against a blistering headwind. Either way, by the end of the day our muscles get a friendly reminder of what they are there for and we always come out of a canoe trip in better shape than when we went in.

5. FOOD TASTES BETTER OUTDOORS

With the physical exertion inherent in canoe tripping comes the need to take on calories. Not only is eating liberal amounts of food necessary, it becomes more enjoyable because our body craves even the simplest fare. Plain noodles, powdered soups and handfuls of salted peanuts become gourmet feasts. Fortunately in Algoma Country, we can supplement our food with wilderness bounty plucked along the way. Of course we should always bring enough food just in case we don't catch fish, but there's nothing wrong with leaving the dehydrated food on the bottom of the pack while we dine on freshly caught brook trout and fiddleheads. With our enhanced appetite comes an appreciation for the delicacies of the woods; a perfect accompaniment to an outdoor meal.

6. SLEEP LIKE A BABY

There's a delightful weariness that comes at the end of the canoe tripping day. Countless paddle strokes, lugging gear over trails, setting up camp and experiencing all the sights, smells and sounds that happen in between, translate into a true need for rest. Whether we roll our camping mattress onto a thick layer of moss, a bed of white pine needles or the conforming sands of a lakeside beach, it becomes the foundation for long, deep and restful sleep.

Camping & Hiking

S'mores That Perfect

Algoma offers a challenge for beginner, novice and experienced backpackers. Hikers can enjoy a leisurely meander along well marked nature trails or rough it alone in some of the most rugged wilderness in Ontario. There are a variety of campsite options: private, municipal, Provincial and National. This region offers a range of experiences from backcountry hiking and camping, to day and night trips in comfortable cabins.

THE COASTAL TRAIL

A strenuous hiking adventure, the Coastal Trail (63 km, or 5 to 7 days) traces Lake Superior along scenic cliffs, across cobblestone beaches and vast forests. Look up for bald eagles, especially along the Sand and Agawa rivers. Several access points give you a choice of spending one or several days on the trail.

1. Canada’s boreal forest is home to approximately 150 species of birds along with an abundance of other animals, fish, and insects.
2. Boreal forests help regulate the climate by purifying air and water while absorbing unwanted carbon dioxide. The Canadian boreal forest stores 208 billion tonnes of carbon.
3. The boreal forest in Canada contains nearly 200 million acres of surface fresh water alone; larger than most countries.
4. Natural disturbances such as forest fires and other outbreaks help the boreal thrive and are part of the natural reproductive cycle.
5. As they are sustainably managed, all of Canada’s boreal forests are healthy, safe and thriving.

Ski & Snowshoe

Winters That Snowy

Ten feet of annual snowfall is the reality here in Algoma. Meticulously groomed ski hills, Nordic trails as well as backcountry adventures are what make Algoma winters famous.

SNOWSHOEING

For the explorer, Algoma provides the most captivating backdrops for trekking on snowshoes. From picturesque panoramas to unmapped rock faces and quiet frozen lakes to old growth forests and winter wildlife sightings, the silence of snowshoeing is remarkable.

DOWNHILL SKIING

Algoma's rugged terrain has carved out perfect conditions for one of Canada's favourite pastimes. The 700 ft vertical drop at Searchmont Resort and its new quad chair makes it one of Ontario's premier spots to ski and board. Visiting Elliot Lake? Mount Dufour is located within walking distance of downtown. Our ski opportunities range from beginner to expert.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING

Our region boasts some of the finest Nordic skiing terrain, track and facilities in the world. Meticulously groomed, well-marked trails lead to panoramic views in the Algoma Highlands, while frozen waterfalls and lakes abound in Hiawatha Highlands. St. Joseph Island

Many colourful stories – some legend, some historical fact — are told about St. Joseph Island, the 2nd largest freshwater island in the world, situated in the channel between Lakes Huron and Superior. About 45 km (28 mi) long and 24 km (15 mi) wide, the 140,000-acre island is 56 km (28 mi) east of Sault Ste. Marie via Highways 17 and 548. Originally named Anipich, the Ojibwe word for “place of the hardwood trees”, the Island was given its present name by Jesuit missionaries to honour the patron saint of a new Indian church they were building.

St. Joseph Island has been listed as the ideal destination for “ride and bike” cyclists. Whether you’re an avid cyclist, a weekend enthusiast, or just cycle for fun and fresh air, St. Joseph Island offers the perfect mix of rolling hills, canopied side roads, picturesque vistas, low traffic rates and friendly services for distance riding or circular routes.

Fort St. Joseph National Historic Site of Canada is a must-see stop. The British chose St. Joseph Island as the ideal location for a fort because of its proximity to Fort Mackinac, to the navigation routes controlling the fur trade and access to the Great Lakes. It was from Fort St. Joseph that a surprise invasion took place in 1812, leading to the capture of the American Fort on Mackinac Island.

The Island is linked to the mainland by a toll free bridge, opened in 1972. With full service marinas, championship 9-hole golf course, libraries, public beaches and trails within easy walking distance of the business centre, St. Joseph Island has something for everyone. The two villages, Hilton Beach and Richards Landing, have a variety of businesses to serve the traveler, as well as hosting many special community events.

Hilton Beach

Hilton Beach offers many services such as restaurants (two licensed under the LLBO), a general store, gift shop, post office, motel, tourist park with cabins and hookups for trailers, public library, automotive garage, hair salons and a full service marina known as one of the largest in the North Channel and one of the most scenic on the Great Lakes.

Many events take place through the summer months. Arts at the Dock is one of the largest shows in Algoma. The Hilton Beach Car Show features about 100 original, restored cars. Old Town Hall concerts brings some of the best Canadian musicians.

Bruce Mines & Area

Welcome to the beautiful, historic town of Bruce Mines & area. Nestled on the North Shore of Lake Huron, straddling the Trans-Canada Highway, Bruce Mines & area is a true four-season destination. Founded in 1846, our scenic town is rich in history, the arts, nature and waterways! Our roots reach back to the earliest settlements in Canada, the discovery of copper and the first copper mine in North America, gold mines, farming, lumber. Visit a 100+ year old dollhouse at the Museum, travel underground at the Simpson Mine Shaft, or take a self-guided historical walking tour. A waterway paradise awaits as you canoe, kayak and enjoy the 8+ inland lakes; rivers and streams and one of the top 5 beaches in Ontario is located within 20 km. Experience perfect sunsets and picturesque vistas! Our full service marina is close to all amenities and is located along the waterway that stretches into the North Channel of Lake Huron; a favourite of boaters.

It's called a sportsman's paradise: fishing, hunting, resorts with amenities, snowmobile trails, snowshoeing, skiing and ice fishing. Nature is at its finest here with waterways and geologically unique formations including puddingstone, ripple rock and Gordon Lake deposit.

Hike the Kensington Conservancy's nature trails or cycle the Great Lakes Waterfront Trail. Artisans of all mediums and craftsmanship abound. Explore the recently discovered painting location of Tom Thomson's View Over a Lake: Shore With Houses (1912). Rolling acres of farmland supply the Farmers' Market and kiosks with local produce, maple syrup, honey, alpaca products and agri-tours. Bruce Mines & area - A place to pause! Come as a visitor, leave as a friend! For more information contact us at (705) 785-3493, or visit our website at www.brucemines.ca

Spanish

Spanish is a natural pit-stop for North Channel island-hoppers or a great place to stay for awhile at our modern full-service Marina, with laundromat, fitness centre, wireless internet, clean showers, sauna and more. That relaxing.

The background image shows a serene outdoor setting. In the foreground, three wooden Adirondack chairs are arranged on a grassy bank, facing away from the viewer towards a body of water. Group of Seven Touring Route

Canada's Group of Seven artists were inspired by the landscapes of Algoma and the North Shore of Lake Superior. Start your Group of Seven experience at the Art Gallery of Algoma in Sault Ste. Marie, enjoying their collection of Group of Seven works. As you travel the Algoma region, visit the Group of Seven interpretive installations in 19 locations depicting actual painting sites or in a place highlighting the experiences of the Group of Seven in Algoma and along the North Shore of Lake Superior.

Plan a day on the famous Agawa Canyon Tour Train where you'll see actual sites along the way, like the Montreal River where J.E.H. MacDonald painted The Solemn Land and Falls, Montreal River. Enjoy close up sites in the Canyon itself like Bridal Veil Falls captured on canvas by both Lawren S. Harris and MacDonald. Travel through Algoma and along the North Shore of Lake Superior where more unique Group of Seven interpretive installations are awaiting you. Hike to the very spot where Harris painted Pic Island. Stand on the shores of Sandy Beach where A.Y. Jackson painted Shoreline, Wawa, Lake Superior. This and more await you in Algoma. Seize the opportunity to experience what the Group of Seven saw, what they painted, the feelings they captured and the moments they had in the heart of this beautiful Canadian wilderness.

Questions? We Have That Answer. The information provided is for everyone and includes border crossing information by car, boat and air. There is information for what you can bring into Canada and what you need to know about bringing the family pet. You'll also find out what you can take home with you when passing through Customs, travel distances and, of course, our location can be found here.

Know Before You Travel: Canadian & International Travel

CROSSING THE CANADA-U.S. BORDER

All U.S. citizens aged 16 and older, entering Canada by air (including in-transit passengers who are transferring planes in the U.S.), land or water, must present one of the following documents: a passport or passport card; an Enhanced Driver's Licence; or a Trusted Traveler Program Card (SENTRI, NEXUS or FAST Card). Travellers aged 15 and under require a birth certificate for land or sea travel and a passport for air travel. For current requirements go to: cic.gc.ca.

If you are traveling with your own children under the age of 16 and your spouse, bring their birth certificates. If you are traveling with a child other than your own or without your spouse, have the child's birth certificate along with a letter of permission, including name and contact information for that child's parents/guardians or your spouse. This is needed in case Customs officers decide to verify you have permission to bring the child into Canada.

Visitors from all other countries require a valid passport and, in some cases, a visitor's visa. Starting March 15, 2016, visa-exempt foreign nationals who fly to or transit through Canada will need an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA). Exceptions include U.S. citizens and travellers with a valid visa.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR U.S. RESIDENTS

If you or anyone in your party has a felony or misdemeanor conviction, you may not be allowed into Canada. This includes such offences as a DUI. Your admissibility to Canada depends on the nature of the offence, how many offences you have, as well as how long ago it occurred. If this applies to you or someone traveling with you, it is imperative you contact Immigration Canada well in advance of your arrival. You will likely have to complete some paperwork and Immigration Canada authorities will then advise you of the likelihood of being allowed into Canada. Final determination of your admissibility into Canada is only made when you cross the border.

Contact Citizenship and Immigration Canada at www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/tourist.asp or the Canadian Consulate in New York, NY http://international.gc.ca/world-monde/united-states-etats_unis/new_york.aspx?lang=eng regarding any forms you may be required to fill out. You may also wish to call an Immigration Officer at the Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario Port of Entry to discuss your situation at 1-800-461-9999 or (204) 983-3500 (outside of Canada). Frequently asked questions for Americans traveling outside of the U.S. are available on these two websites: www.cbsa.gc.ca or www.travel.state.gov

WHAT CAN & CAN'T COME INTO CANADA

Residents of the United States who visit Canada are allowed to bring in a "reasonable" amount of personal goods duty free. The amount you bring should align with your length of stay. Limits for some of the regulated items:

ALCOHOL: If you are 19 years of age or older and crossing the border into Ontario, you can bring, free of duty and taxes, either 1.5 litres (50 oz.) of wine, 1.14 litres (40 oz.) of liquor, or 24 X 355 millilitres (12 oz.) of beer or ale. If you bring in more than the amount listed here, you will be required to pay the duty at the Border on excess amounts. Make sure you fully declare all alcohol in your possession.

TOBACCO: If you are 19 years of age or older and crossing the border into Ontario, you are allowed to bring, free of duty, up to 200 cigarettes, 50 cigars, 200 grams (7 oz.) of manufactured tobacco and 200 tobacco sticks. You may bring additional quantities but you will be required to pay duties & taxes on the excess amounts.

FOOD PRODUCTS: What is and what is not allowed changes frequently, visit www.inspection.gc.ca for current information prior to your departure.

PETS: Dogs and cats accompanying their owners from the U.S. must have current (within 36 months) rabies vaccination certificates. Owners from other countries who wish to bring their pets with them should contact 1-800-442-2342 / (613) 225-2342 / TTY 1-800-465-7735 or visit www.inspection.gc.ca

RESIDENTS RETURNING TO THE U.S.

If you're a U.S. resident visiting Canada for less than 48 hours, you can bring back $200 worth of goods duty-free. For stays longer than 48 hours, the duty-free limit rises to $800, but this $800 limit can only be used once every 30 days. If you return for another shopping trip in less than 30 days and have already purchased $800 worth of goods, your limit drops to $200. People who live in the same house can combine their duty-free limits, but they must travel together.

Refer to https://help.cbp.gov/app/answers/detail/a_id/246/~/_duty-free-exemption

VEHICLES AND INSURANCE

Any necessary permits are issued at the port of entry. If you've rented a vehicle or trailer, make sure you bring along a copy of the rental contract, which stipulates that you have permission to use it in Canada. U.S. motorists planning to travel in Canada are advised to obtain a Canadian Non-Resident Interprovincial Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance Card available only in the U.S.

Contact your local insurance agency. For more information contact Canadian Border Services (204) 983-3500, or (506) 636-5064, or visit the website at www.cbsa.gc.ca

Note that in Ontario use of cellular and other devices is hands-free. <https://www.ontario.ca/page/distracted-driving>

HOSPITALS & HEALTH INSURANCE

Most communities have hospitals and/or resident doctors. Wise travelers will check with their medical service plans to ensure they will be covered while in Canada, as health insurance plans may not extend coverage outside your country of residence. If you are taking prescription drugs, make sure that they are in the original packaging, bring an adequate supply, and bring a copy of the prescription in case you need a refill during your stay in Ontario. If this is not possible, carry a copy of the prescription or a letter from your doctor. For more information and insurance details, contact your travel agent, insurance broker, or your employer's insurance provider.

SEAT BELTS

Ontario Law requires that adults and children over 40lbs / 18kg in weight wear seat belts. Infants from birth to 20lbs / 9kg in weight must travel in a rear-facing child restraint system. Toddlers weighing 20-40lbs / 9-18kg must travel in a front-facing child restraint seat.

CREDIT CARDS, FINANCIAL SERVICES AND U.S. FUNDS

Chartered banks are located in virtually all cities and towns. These full-service institutions are the best locations for exchanging currency. There is also a government sanctioned Canada / U.S. currency exchange service at the International Bridge Plaza in Sault Ste. Marie and at the Duty Free Store & Kiosk. Credit cards such as Visa, MasterCard and AMEX, are generally honoured in all communities. Be sure to check with individual businesses before or when booking accommodations to ensure they accept your card.

SALES TAX

In Ontario, a Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) of 13% applies to most purchases.

For more information, contact:

- 1-800-565-9353 (inside Canada);
- 1-902-432-5604 (outside Canada); or
- www.cra-arc.gc.ca

LIQUOR OUTLETS AND THE LAW

You must be 19 or over to buy or consume liquor, wine and beer in Ontario. It is an offence to consume alcohol anywhere other than in a licenced establishment, your residence or within a reasonable distance of your residence. Ontario laws prohibit having open bottles of liquor in a location accessible to the driver of a vehicle. Please don't drink and drive! Liquor including wine and beer is available through stores run by the Liquor Control Board of Ontario (LCBO) or in smaller centers, by their authorized representative. Beer may be purchased through "The Beer Store" or directly from brewery outlets. Beer, wine and cider is now available at select grocery stores in the province of Ontario.

Drinking hours in licenced establishments are from 11 a.m. until 2 a.m. In Ontario, it is an offence to consume alcohol anywhere other than in a residence or on licenced premises.

Please note that driving motorized vehicles, including cars, trucks, ATVs, snowmobiles, and boats, while impaired is illegal. You can immediately lose your licence for 90 days for refusing to take a breathalyzer reading greater than 80mg (0.08%) of alcohol per 100mL of blood. Charges may be laid under the criminal code of Canada.
